PEACE SUNDAY - 16TH JANUARY

Peace Sunday follows the International World Day of Peace & is celebrated this Sunday, 2nd Sunday of Ordinary Time.

The theme for this Sunday is taken from Pope Francis' message for 55th World Day of Peace 'Dialogue Between Generations, Education & Work; Tools for Building Lasting Peace'

Archbishop Malcolm McMahon, the National President of Pax Christi says:

"This year has been one of unprecedented and continuing challenges. We are all conscious of the need to restore and rebuild our communities here and around the world, accepting that we need new ways of working and relating to each other.

"The Christian message of peace, through reconciliation, justice and nonviolence, can offer hope and direction in these times."

The gift of peace

May God give wisdom and courage to those who work for peace. We pray that their efforts may be blessed, that they may bring an end to violence and solace and stability to suffering peoples.

May the gift of peace permeate all troubled souls, convert all who live by violence and comfort all children who live in menacing situations, that the freedom to enjoy life and grow in safety may be theirs.

And may each one of us know peace of mind and heart, peace of body and spirit, peace of community and world.

Holy Spirit of Peace, grant our prayer. Amen.

CHRISTIAN UNITY WEEK 18TH - 25TH JANUARY

The Week of Prayer for Christian Unity (WPCU) is traditionally celebrated between January 18th and January 25th.

This year's theme is 'We Saw His Star in the East'.

The story of the Magi visiting the Holy Family in Bethlehem is a very familiar one. The Magi have sometimes been seen as a symbol of the world's diversity – different religions and cultures – that come to pay homage to the Christ-child.

The story might therefore represent the unity of all created that God desires.

PLEASE KEEP THOSE WHO ARE SICK AND THEIR CARERS IN YOUR PRAYERS ESPECIALLY:

ORDINARY TIME

The Church is now in the period that is called Ordinary Time. Ordinary Time refers to all of those parts of the Catholic Church's liturgical year that aren't included in the major seasons of Advent, Christmas, Lent, and Easter.

Ordinary Time is divided into two sections totalling 34 weeks in all.

The first section of Ordinary Time begins after the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord & continues until Ash Wednesday, the beginning of Lent.

Ordinary Time then recommences after Pentecost Sunday & continues until the Feast of Christ the King, the end of the Church's year.

The liturgical colour for Ordinary Time is green. This is to represent the time of growth and expansion of the Church following the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus. Green is a very natural colour, and is often a symbol for growth and new life.

Reflection .....

The Nazareth Page
A gospel meditation for your home
January 16th, 2022 -
Second Sunday in Ordinary Time
John 2:1-11

We live in a world filled with signs. Most of them are sent to us via our computers, laptops, iPads, cell phones and television sets. It has been estimated that a typical person who uses these communicative devices will view more than a thousand signs and messages each day. And these signs are important, especially for companies selling things, but also for movements and groups and individuals selling ideas.

The first part of John's Gospel is called the Book of Signs. Most of the signs are accounts of things Jesus did that communicated or illustrated his ideas and values. His actions embodied his thoughts. In today's gospel, we have described for us in wonderful detail, the first of the signs mentioned by John, the Evangelist. Most of us are familiar with its general details. Just mention "the wedding feast at Cana" and images of worried hosts, an observant mom (Mary), a reluctant Jesus, a bunch of large earthen pots filled with water and a surprised headwaiter come to mind. I also like to imagine the grateful guests.

And it's the setting itself that is important. Wedding feasts were special times in middle eastern culture at the time of Jesus. They could last for days. They also indicated who was valued by the families of the newly married couple.

You had to receive a personal invitation. And the wine served was an important part of the festivities. To run out of vino would be considered a major societal faux pas. Jesus often mentioned that the Kingdom or Reign of God was to be likened to a wedding feast. It was to be a time for joy (a favourite theme of Pope Francis) and gratitude.

It was what God wanted for all God's people. And all humans were invited to the feast. This first sign was to show that God is, first of all, one who loves and who loves a good time.

Obviously, there will be times of sadness and suffering, but in the end (and hopefully, a few times along the way) there would be feasting and enjoyment. And these times should be appreciated as special gifts from God. Water, the most common liquid in the universe is changed into wine, which can be the best and most enjoyable drink we might enjoy. Such great symbolism is a powerful sign of why God decided to share life and joy with all of us.

I once came across a rabbinic saying that captures this spirit. It goes something like this: God will hold us accountable for every pleasure God sends that we fail to enjoy. What great wisdom!
